COVERS:
GRAZING AND INTEGRATING YOUR LIVESTOCK

JOIN OUR EXPERTS IN RUSSELL COUNTY FOR A DRYLAND CROPPING SYSTEMS FIELD DAY

Demonstrations and discussions will have a special focus on drought conditions.

A light meal will be provided. RSVPs appreciated!
Stacie Minson: 785-769-3297

MAY 17, 2023
PROGRAM BEGINS AT 4:30 PM

Topics will include
✓ using covers to meet forage needs
✓ can covers complement forage lands?
✓ cover crops and drought
✓ manure management
✓ nutrient cycling in cropping systems
✓ compaction, water filtration, and water quality

Location:
Frank Weber
19748 Michaelis Road
Dorrance, KS 67634

K-State Research and Extension is committed to providing equal opportunity for participation in all programs, services, and activities. Accommodations for persons with disabilities may be requested by contacting Stacie Minson two weeks prior to the start of the event (see phone number above). Requests received after this date will be honored when it is feasible to do so.

This event has been funded in part through the Section 319 of the Clean Water Act.