

Tailgate Talks

Ellis & Russell Counties

You're invited!

On September 8 and 9, we will be sharing information about cover crops, livestock grazing and demonstrations of tire tank installations. Each program begins at 4:30 pm, and meals will be provided.

RSVP to 785-769-3297

To slow the spread of COVID-19 and help preserve the health of our communities and neighbors, this event will follow K-State guidelines. If physical distancing is not possible, participants should wear face coverings. Each event will be limited to 50 participants.

Speakers

Ernie, Steve and Tom Binder, landowners

Rob Corley, landowner

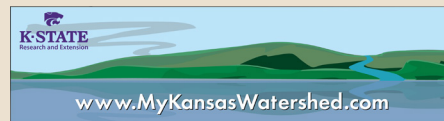

Herschel George, KCARE watershed specialist, retired

Sandy Johnson, K-State Northwest Research and Extension Center

Stacie Minson, KCARE watershed specialist

Augustine Obour, K-State Agricultural Research Center, Hays

Speakers and presenters for both sessions include specialists, researchers and landowners. Speakers will present on various topics, provide demonstrations and answer questions.

Big Creek Middle Smoky Hill River Watersheds

Sept 8

- Why make changes to your operation?
- Making it work: Tire tanks, wells and solar panels
- Making it work: Cover crops
- Utilizing existing feed sources in cattle operations
- Protecting and improving water sources in livestock operations

Venue: Pleasant View Farms, LLC., 198 260th Ave, Hays, Kansas

Sept 9

- Why make changes to your operation?
- Demonstration: Installing tire tanks as an alternative water source for livestock
- Incorporating cover crops into a livestock grazing plan

Venue: Corley Farm, 17833 4 Corners
Lane, Gorham, Kansas

Kansas State University Agricultural Experiment Station and Cooperative Extension Service. K-State Research and Extension is an equal opportunity provider and employer. Issued in furtherance of Cooperative Extension Work, Acts of May 8 and June 30, 1914, as amended. Kansas State University, County Extension Councils, Extension Districts, and United States Department of Agriculture Cooperating, Ernie Minton, Director. This event is made possible through United States Environmental Protection Agency Clean Water Act, Section 319, grant funds administered by the Kansas Department of Health and Environment.